SEÑOR CASTILLO SHOT

The Premier of Spain Assassinated by an Anarchist.

THE MURDERER UNDER ARREST.

He Declared That He Killed the Premier "In Accomplishment of a Just Vengeance"—He Narrowly Escaped Lynching. The Greatest Excitement and Indignation Prevails in Madrid.

MADRID, Aug. 9.—Senor Canovas Del Castillo, the prime minister of Spain, was assassinated yesterday at Santa Agueda by an anarchist. The murderer fired three shots, two of which struck the premier in the head and the other in the chest. The wounded man lingered unconscious for two hours and died at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. His wife was but a short distance away when he fell.

SEÑOR CASTILLO.

Santa Agueda is noted for its baths. The place is between San Sebastian, the summer residence of the Spanish court and Vittoria, the capital of the province of Alava, about 30 miles south of Bilbao. The premier went there last Thursday to take a three-weeks course of the baths, after which he expected to return to San Sebastian to meet United States Minister Woodford, when that gentleman should be officially received by the queen regent.

The assassin was immediately arrested. He is a neapolitan and gives the name of Rinalda, but it is believed that this is an assumed name, and that his real name is Michele Angino Goli.

The murderer declares that he killed Senor Canovas "in accomplishment of a just vengeance" and that the deed is the outcome of a vast anarchist conspiracy. He is believed to have arrived at Santa Agueda the same day as the premier, and he was frequently seen lurking in the passages of the bathing establishment in a suspicious manner.

At the moment of the assassination he was waiting in the gallery of the bathing establishment for his wife, who was to join him for lunch. Suddenly the assassin, who had the appearance of an ordinary visitor, approached and fired at him point blank, one bullet passing through the body and coming out behind under the left shoulder, and the other two lodging in the head. He fell instantly and only recovered consciousness long enough to speak a few words.

Several medical men and his wife were unremittent in their attentions to the sufferer, but his wounds, unhappily, were mortal, and he died in two hours. Extremeunction was administered, amid a scene of mingled sorrow and indignation.

The assassin narrowly escaped lynching at the hands of the waiters and attendants, who rushed forward. Detectives and civil guards immediately secured him. He was very pale, trembled violently, and evidently feared that he would be killed on the spot. He will be first arraigned before the local magistrate at Vergara.

The queen regent on hearing the sad news dispatched her own physician, Dr. Bustos, by a special train from San Sebastian. Later, on learning that Canovas was dead, she wired her condolence to the widow.

The queen regent and all the members of the cabinet will return at once. Her majesty has intrusted the presidency of the council to General Azcaraga, minister of war, and the cortes will be summoned to reassemble on Tuesday.

The greatest excitement and indignation prevails among all classes. All the members of the diplomatic corps have expressed their sympathy with the government. Many senators, deputies and generals, while expressing their grief and indignation, have offered to render to the government all the assistance in their power.

Senor Antonio Canovas Del Castillo, according to the dictionary universel Des Contemporains, was born at Malaga, Feb. 8, 1828. He took the course in philosophy and law in the university of Madrid and began his career as a journalist. In 1851 he made his debut, under the patronage of Senors Rios, Rosas and Pacheco, as chief editor of the Patria, in which he defended conservative ideas. About this time he published a volume of lyric poems and a series of historical papers. He was in doubt whether to follow a literary or political career, but soon found himself turned to politics by the course of events. In 1852 he was named deputy for Malaga, and from that time until his death had never ceased to occupy a seat in the cortes. In 1856 he was charged with affairs at Rome, and prepared the historical memorandum on the relations of Spain with the holy see which served as a basis for the Concordat.

After serving the crown as governor of Cadiz in 1855, director general of the administration from 1858 to 1861, and lastly, in that same year, as under-secretary of state for the interior, the queen called him to the ministry as a member of the Mon cabinet. In 1865 he held the portfolios of finance and the colonies in the O'Donnell cabinet, and it developed upon him to draw up the law for the abolition of the slave trade. Shortly before the revolution of 1868 he became especially conspicuous as one of the last to defend with energy in the cortes, the principle of blending liberal and conciliatory ideas with the constitutional monarchy. When all the parties that had supported this political doctrine had deserted the parliament, he was banished a short time before the revolution occurred, and took no part in it.

In the face of the triumphant revolution, after his return from exile and in the full constituent assembly of 1869, supported by Senors Elduayem, Bugallal and two others, he hoisted the standard of the legitimate and constitutional monarchy. This is his greatest title to fame. His fidelity and ability finally secured for him the supreme direction of the Alfonsist party, and on the proclamation of Alfonso XII as king on Dec. 31, 1874, Senor Canovas del Castillo became president of the council and chief of the new cabinet, called the cabinet of conciliation. He retired in September, 1875, because of the demands of the extreme Conservative party, but he was called back to the presidency of the council on Dec. 2, of the same year, and charged particularly with the direction of the first legislative elections of the new regime. He was himself elected to the cortes from the city of Madrid in January, 1876. It devolved upon him then to repress the second attempt of the Carlists to bring on a civil war and to deal with the first insurrection in Cuba.

With the exception of an interval of a few months he continued to hold the premiership down to 1879, when, on the return of Marshal Martinez Campos from Cuba, he retired from the premiership and was succeeded by Campos, who accepted as his colleagues the principal associates of Senor Canovas. The opposition raised to the policy of Campos soon forced him to retire. Senor Canovas skillfully resisted, delayed and finally defeated the free trade and emancipation projects of Campos. On the reassembling of the cortes in December, 1879, Campos gave up the attempt to conduct the government, and Senor Canovas formed a new cabinet on December 10, with a second Cuban insurrection to be dealt with.

He charged General Blanco with this task, but the reactionary tendency of his home policy became more and more marked until the financial projects in which he wished to embark drew upon him the bitter attacks not only of Castelar and the Republicans, but also those of Campos and Sagasta; and he was compelled to resign. In 1881 he returned again to power, but his Conservative cabinet was speedily overthrown and a coalition government with Sagasta and Campos at its head, took the reins of affairs.

At the general elections of the same year he was returned to the cortes from Madrid and became the chief spokesman of the intermediate party, known as the party of Conservative-Liberals. On Jan. 18, 1884, he was called upon to form a Conservative ministry. In order to secure a majority devoted, like himself, to ideas of order and of liberty, in harmony with the monarchical principle, he dissolved the cortes, and the new elections resulted favorably. But on Nov. 26, 1885, on the question of the occupation of the Caroline islands by Germany, he was again compelled to resign, being succeeded by Senor Sagasta. The same day he was elected president of the chamber by 222 votes against 112 cast for Senor Romero Robledo and he signalled his entrance upon his new functions by a funeral eulogy of King Alfonso XII, who had died the previous day.

In 1890 another reversal brought him back into power, and on July 5 he took the presidency of a Conservative cabinet, replacing the Liberal ministry of Sagasta. Two years later the pendulum swung to the opposite extreme, and the Liberals, under Senor Sagasta, won the general elections and retained power until 1895, when disagreements in the Sagasta cabinet led the queen regent to summon Canovas to the premiership.

Canovas came last into power on Feb. 7, 1895. A number of officers had broken and pillaged the offices of various newspapers which had made insinuations against the conduct of officers engaged in suppressing the Cuban revolt. The war minister seemed to support the officers, whereas the premier, Senor Sagasta, ordered the journalists to be protected. This led to the retirement of the ministry. Marshal Campos was temporarily named captain-general of Madrid, and the greatest excitement prevailed. Finally Senor Canovas formed a ministry, although he lacked the support of a section of the Conservative party.

The government was defeated on a vote of censure on June 3, 1895, but did not resign. The general elections of April, 1896, returned an overwhelming majority to the cortes in favor of the policy of the Canovas cabinet, though the opposition charged that the minister carried many of the election districts by gross frauds.

On June 2, last, Senor Canovas tendered the resignation of the cabinet, owing to the difficulty ministers experienced in carrying on the government in view of the parliamentary situation caused by the refusal of the Liberals to take part in the deliberations of the cortes. This attitude of the Liberals was due to a personal encounter between the Duke of Tetuan, minister of foreign affairs and Professor Comas, a distinguished Liberal senator, on May 21, when the duke slapped the face of the professor after a heated debate on the Morgan resolution adopted by the United States senate. After four days of conference with the leaders of all political parties, the queen regent requested him to withdraw the resignation of the cabinet and he did so, being confirmed by the crown in his ministerial powers with the personnel and policy of the cabinet unchanged.

Senor Canovas was the author of numerous works in moral and political science, and of a "History of the House of Austria," which is in high repute and a "History of the Decline of Spain From the Accession of Philip III to the Death of Charles II," which ranks favorably among works of its class from Spanish writers. Under the title of "El Solitario" he published a monograph dedicated to one of his uncles, Estebanes Calderon. Of his literary studies the one of most general interest is a volume on the contemporary Spanish theater, which appeared in 1886.

He had received the insignia of the order of the Red Eagle from the Emperor of Germany, the Grand Cross of the Order of the Tower and Sword, from the King of Portugal, and the Golden Fleece from the King of Spain.

AUGUST CROP REPORT.

Returns Made to the Orange Judd Farmer From All Over the Country.

CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—The August crop report of The Orange Judd Farmer, based upon county returns from all the principal agricultural counties of the country, makes the condition of the corn crop on Aug. 1, 1894, against 83.4 on July 1. This is below the average for a series of years, and it has been lower but once in recent years, in the years of partial failure, 1894. The low condition a month ago merely reflected disappointment at the backward condition of the plant, but the present figure not only reflects this continued lateness but a further positive damage to the crop.

July was reasonably favorable east of the Mississippi river, and the condition in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois advanced to a point where a moderate crop is indicated. In Iowa and Missouri the crop barely held its own, while in Nebraska there was a slight falling off. The severe decline of the month was in Kansas where there was a drop of 17 points; in Texas with a drop of 20 points, and in Arkansas of 15 points. If the present growth of the crop was normal the present report might be taken as indicating a crop between 1,800,000,000 and 1,900,000,000 bushels, but in seasons like the present the final rate of yield is apt to be less than that indicated by conditional reports, and an expectation of over 1,800,000,000 bushels must be based upon entirely favorable weather conditions during the rest of the season with exemption from frost for at least 10 days later than usual in the more northern part of the belt.

The average condition of spring wheat is 87.4, a decline during the month of six points. South Dakota declines 10 points, due to generally unfavorable conditions during the month; Minnesota six points, the result of some rust and blight in the southern counties. The northern part of the state is still in good promise. In North Dakota the early promise is well maintained. With favorable weather for harvesting the crop should exceed 230,000,000 bushels.

Threshing shows winter wheat yields uniformly higher than expected. Returns from nearly 1,000 correspondents giving neighborhood results so far as developed, make a general average for the breadth of 15.6 bushels. Should the latter threshing confirm these earlier yields the crop will equal 362,000,000 bushels, the largest crop grown with the single exception of 1891. The quality of the crop is remarkably high and very uniform. The last report on oats condition is a trifle lower than a month ago. The average is 86.4, indicating a crop approximating 800,000,000 bushels of fair quality against 717,000,000 last year of very inferior quality.

EXPLOSION OF GASOLINE.

A Man, His Wife and Little Child Badly Burned in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—Three persons composing the family of Peter Veth at 227 East Hnron street, were seriously burned yesterday in a fire caused by an explosion of gasoline. The injured are: Peter Veth, Mrs. Bessie Veth, his wife, and Edwin Veth, aged two and a half years.

Mrs. Veth went to the rooms of Mrs. G. H. Solomon, on the second floor, from whom she had rented the rooms, and procured a small quantity of gasoline in a coffee cup to clean a brass bedstead. Taking it to her rooms, she used the stuff in cleaning the bed and with a brush applied it to the woodwork. Her little boy with bare feet and wearing but little clothing was playing on the floor.

It was not noticed that the gasoline had filled the room with vapor, and Mr. Veth struck a match for the purpose of lighting a cigar. In an instant there was an explosion and the room was filled with flame. The husband caught up the child in his arms and ran down the stairs out of the fire. A few seconds later he was followed by his wife, who was screaming and enveloped in flames from head to foot. All her clothing was burning, and the wrapper she wore fell from her in blazing strips. At the landing on the second floor she met Mrs. Solomon, the landlady, and the frantic woman threw her arms around Mrs. Solomon and begged her to save her.

Mrs. Solomon disengaged herself only to be grasped again about the neck by the agonized woman. She succeeded in shaking her off and ordering her to remain standing, where she was ran into one of her own rooms and procured a pitcher of water which she poured on Mrs. Veth. This was repeated by the landlady, and then the latter threw around Mrs. Veth a large quilt from one of her beds and the flames were subdued.

The mother was removed to the German hospital. There the physicians, after dressing her burns, said she would probably recover. Mr. Veth was taken to the same hospital. His hands and arms are severely burned, and his hair and eyebrows singed. The boy's injuries are not serious.

PASSENGER TRAIN WRECKED.

The Baggage Master Fatally Injured and the Postal Clerk Hurt.

CHATTANOOGA, Aug. 9.—The Memphis and Charleston passenger train was wrecked at 9:30 o'clock near Stratton, Ala., by a misplaced switch. The mail and baggage cars were overturned and badly damaged, and much baggage and mail matter were lost.

Sam Davis, baggage master, had two ribs broken and received internal injuries which are believed to be fatal.

J. T. Martin, postal clerk, was badly cut and bruised.

BULGARIAN DISASTER

Forty-Six People Killed in an Explosion.

SIXTY OTHER PEOPLE INJURED.

The Disaster Occurred at a Cartridge Factory in Rustchuk, a City on the Danube River—The Cause of the Explosion Is Not Known, but It Is Believed to Be Carelessness.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Aug. 9.—A disastrous explosion occurred at the cartridge factory of Rustchuk, on the Danube, 139 miles northwest of Varna. Forty-six persons were killed outright, and very many others were injured. The lives of 60 of the latter are despaired of.

The cause of the explosion is not known, though it is attributed to carelessness on the part of one of the workmen in handling the explosives.

Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria on receipt of the news of the disaster, visited the sufferers from the explosion who had been taken to the hospital, and caused money to be distributed to the families of the victims.

Rustchuk is a city on the south bank of the Danube, 40 miles from Bucharest. It has 20,000 inhabitants and the cartridge depot is one of the largest in Bulgaria.

OUR REPLY TO JAPAN.

Secretary Sherman Will Be Brief and Use Conciliatory Language.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—It is understood that the reply of Secretary Sherman to the last Japanese protest against the annexation of Hawaii will be brief by comparison with the long letters that have gone before, but will be conciliatory in tone. This is accounted for by the fact that the state department has taken note of the published utterances of eminent Japanese statesmen, which, while unofficial, are still of undoubted authenticity, all going to show that Japan has herself no designs upon the islands, but seeks only to conserve her treaty rights.

However, the basic tone of the note on this point will be the declaration by Secretary Foster, when he submitted to President Harrison the original treaty of annexation in 1898, which failed owing mainly to the immediate change of administration. This statement was that, according to a recognized principle of international law, the obligation of treaties, even when some of their stipulations are in terms perpetual, expire in ease either of the contracting parties loses its existence as an independent state. The foreign treaties of the Hawaiian islands therefore terminate, upon annexation, with the competence of the government to hold diplomatic relations. The argument is to meet the Japanese objection that they will by annexation lose certain privileges for Japanese subjects which they now enjoy under treaty with Hawaii.

HAND ON THE THROTTLE.

Sat the Dead Engineer While the Train Speed Along.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Aug. 9.—While his train was coming toward the city at the rate of 40 miles an hour over the Burlington road, Engineer Charles Torrey was stricken with paralysis and died in his seat, with his hand on the throttle.

Long after he was dead the train ran on with increasing speed, passing crossings without whistling, and at last thundering past a station at which it should have stopped. It was then that the fireman, James McDonald, saw that something was wrong with Torrey. The fireman shook him, thinking him asleep, and the dead engineer fell to the floor of the cab. The fireman took charge of the engine and brought the train in safely.

FAMILY CREMATED.

Farm House Struck by Lightning and Three People Perish.

NEW ROE, Ky., Aug. 9.—News has just reached here of a terrible disaster resulting from the electrical storm of last Thursday night. The home of a farmer named Bostwin, who lived in the neighborhood of Gibbs Cross Roads, in Tennessee, was struck by lightning some time after midnight. The house burned down and Bostwin, his wife and a grown daughter were cremated.

Bostwin's son, a lad of 10 years, and a white farm hand escaped from the house by jumping from the window of the second story, and in their fright it is thought they ran to the Cumberland river, and in trying to swim the stream they were drowned.

Both Engines Demolished.

OHIO CITY, O., Aug. 9.—Cincinnati, Jackson and Mackinaw southbound train No. 3 was struck by Toledo, St. Louis and Kansas City train No. 2 at the junction of those roads at this place Saturday. The Cincinnati, Jackson and Mackinaw train had the right of way, and no reason was assigned why the trainmen of the Toledo, St. Louis and Kansas City did not observe the rules. No one was injured, but both engines were totally demolished. Engineer Burgen had a very narrow escape, remaining on his engine, which was completely turned over, crawling out of the wreckage without a scratch.

A large brain does not signify intellect. The brain of an illiterate person in a low station of life has been found to outweigh those of the most celebrated scientists, poets and philosophers.

CULLOM'S KICK.

The Illinois Senator Declares That He Is Disgusted.

[Washington Special New York World.]

The first indications of a serious break in the Republican party through dissatisfaction with the methods employed by President McKinley in the distribution of Federal patronage became public today by the giving out of a letter written by Senator Shelby M. Cullom, of Illinois, to one of his constituents.

In the course of this letter, to which the signature of Senator Cullom is affixed,
is the following:

"I am utterly disgusted at the way things have gone here in the matter of Consulships. I have never known anything like it and am unable to account for it. But the truth is, as I believe, the appointments that have been made for Chicago were all promised by Hanna and McKinley before the election and probably before the conventions.

"I have not been able in a single instance to get the President, in the selection of Consuls, to listen to what I had to say and carry out my wishes. I have labored with him, talked with him, and told him that the gang he was appointing was not worth a snap, either for politics or anything else, and yet it seemed to make no impression on his mind in his selections."

NEARLY FIFTY MILLION BUSHELS.

Enormous Yield of Winter Wheat in Kansas—Other Crops.

TOPEKA, KAN., Aug. 6.—Secretary F. D.
Coburn, of the State Board of Agriculture, to-day issued a report on Kansas crops, in which he says:

"The yield of winter wheat aggregates 49,502,807 bushels, or, with two exceptions (1891 and 1892), the largest in the State's history. The yield per acre is 14.91 bushels on the 3,313,763 acres sown.

The crop is reported "good" from almost every county. The estimates indicate that 40 per cent. of the year's product will be marketed within sixty days,
and that the acreage sown the coming season will be at least an increase of 10 per cent. over last fall's sowing.

There were 983,355 acres of oats; yield, 25,151,379 bushels; yield per acre, 25.57
bushels.

In corn the average condition for the State is sixty. In four counties it is higher. It is sixty or above in seven counties, and seventy-five or above in twenty-eight counties; in eight it is ninety or above; in twenty it ranges from thirty down to five.

Acetylene Gas.

We are now prepared to place on the market our machines for generating acetylene gas. These machines are adapted for lighting stores, factories, churches and private residences. Small towns and farmers can now have gas as well as those in the cities, as each consumer controls his own little gas plant, which is quite inexpensive. We guarantee to furnish six times as much light at less than half the expense of ordinary gas, electric light or kerosene lamps. A first-class agent is wanted in every county to sell our ma-

FIRE INSURANCE.—J. C. Everett.

The great pair of vaudeville stars begin to shine to-night at Electric Park. They are Helf and Yost, high priced and much wanted. It is a rare treat our people have of enjoying pure fun, high class wit
and hearing composers sing their own songs.

In the Democratic primary in Harrison
County Saturday, for Representative
Claude Desha defeated J. L. Scott by 369 votes, with Claysville and Richards both conceded to Desha by from 50 to 150, to hear from. J. C. Gillispie defeated Dr.
N. H. McNew for State Senator by about 700.

CAPTAIN E. W. FITZGERALD, of the C. and O., was in Maysville Saturday the first time since he was hurt in the smash up at New Richmond. His injuries were more serious than at first reported. In jumping from the engine he received a very dangerous wound on the head,
and now wears several ugly scars.

With a yearly slaughter of about 14-000,000 muttons and lambs, a possible growing export trade in live muttons, an annual increase of at least 15 per cent. in mutton consumption and less than 35-000,000 sheep in the country, the prospect for an overstock of sheep within the next dozen years is not particularly brilliant.

PARIS Kentuckian: "Mr. Edward Hill, of Maysville, is here plastering on the new Methodist Church. He worked here forty years ago for Lawson Owens, of Maysville, and has done 310 yards of white coating in nine hours and twenty minutes. He is considered the finest workman on the Ohio river. His son, Wm. J. Hill, is also here and is a very swift workman. He has a son, Eddie F.
Hill, who laths and can put on 2,400 lath
per day."

CINCINNATI Enquirer: "Last Wednesday evening at the residence of Mrs. Klus-sella, 1014 West Ninth street, a reception was tendered her fair guests, Miss Anna Lynch and Miss Anna Murphy, of Maysville, Ky. Music, dancing, recitations, &c., were indulged in, and an elegant repast was served. Those present spent a very enjoyable evening. Miss Murphy and Miss Lynch will leave Sunday morning to spend a week in Dayton, Ohio, after which they will spend another week here,
and then return to their Kentucky homes."

A RED-HOT mass convention was held by the Democrats of Bracken County at Brooksville Saturday. The delegates were instructed to cast the nine votes of the county for John R. Humlong, of Germantown, for State Senator in the nominating convention to be held at Williamstown August 11th. Hon. J. B. Hiles refused to stand as a candidate for instructions, claiming that under rotation the nomination belonged to another county.
Hon. H. J. Poor, one of Humlong's opponents, was defeated badly at Falmouth in his home county. Dr. J. T. Scott, another candidate, carried Grant County.

In his notes of the meeting of the Bracken Association of Baptists at Lewisburg last week, Editor Craddock of the Paris Kentuckian says: "The beautiful
Miss May Marshall that was is now Mrs.
Adams, the pastor's wife at Lewisburg.
Her first born is called Marshall Adams.
She most gracefully did the honors at the feast. We were guest of our ex-Bourbon subscriber, Wm. S. McClelland, who owns the old Alex. Raider place, where his wife, Mr. Raider's daughter Alice, was born. They have no children; but Mrs.
McClelland's mother (nee Graves) lives with them in her eighty-second year, and they take great pleasure in entertaining in their delightful residence. Their large farm is one of the finest in Mason, with most beautiful hedge fence of half mile length, bordering on pike. Without any great expense Mr. McClelland keeps this hedge trimmed thrice each year.
He sold over $6,000 worth of tobacco in 1897, from twenty-two acres, but this year he sold too early; if he had held on he could get double price now for his crop sold last spring. He is determined not to miss it with his wheat and is holding for a rise in price."

KILLED AT A "FESTIVAL."

George Porter Knifed to Death by "June" Green Saturday Night Near Moransburg.

George Porter was killed by "June"
Green at a negro "festival" Saturday night, near Moransburg.

Green is a young colored man, as was also his victim, the former being about seventeen years old, while the latter was about twenty-three.

The festival was given at the home of a negro living on the farm of the widow Eitel. There was trouble of some kind during the evening, and later Porter left the house and was preparing to go home.
While he was getting his horse, Green approached him, and taking him by the coat collar began pulling him about.

Porter asked Green what he meant,
and repeated the question. Just then Green began slashing him with a razor or knife.

Porter was cut in a terrible manner,
there being two long wounds extending from each shoulder down almost to the hips, and one across the abdomen.

Porter's friends not knowing how badly he was cut, put him in a buggy and started to take him home. He died on the way, about half a mile from the scene of the cutting.

Green is a son of Elijah Green, who lived a mile or so below Maysville a year or two ago. The father brought his son to town Sunday morning and turned him over to the authorities.

Green's examining trial is set for 10 a.
m. Tuesday before Judge Hutchins. He is in jail charged with murder.

From later information the cuts down the side were not very serious. The fatal wound was under the arm, an artery being severed, and the man bled to death.

Democratic Primary at Aberdeen.

The smallest vote ever polled in Huntington Township was that cast at the senatorial primary Saturday. Of the 129 votes E. A. Tissandier received 65 and J.
D. Garrison 64. In Pleasant Township
Tissandier received 98 votes and Garrison
282. Union township beat Tissandier 2 to 1. Georgetown and Decatur also against him very strong. The free silver advocacy by Garrison it is said knocked out Tissandier.

Clermont County Instructed for Tissandier.

THE BEEHIVE,

ROSENAU BROS., Props.

MRS. H. C. BARKLEY.

Death Sunday Morning at 9:30 O'clock of One of Maysville's Most Estimable Women.

Mrs. Isabella Barkley, widow of the late H. C. Barkley, died Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the family residence on West Third street.

For twelve weeks she had suffered from a terrible wound in the throat, self inflicted. In the quiet and peace of the Sabbath morn, she passed away even as in a gentle sleep, death coming as a merciful relief to her sufferings.

Deceased was a Miss Howell, of Covington, and was born in 1840. In 1862 she was united in marriage to the late H. C. Barkley, and to them were born seven children, five of whom survive, two sons and three daughters. Deceased was one of Maysville's most estimable women.

The funeral occurs at 4:30 this afternoon at the residence, with services by Rev. D. D. Chapin. Burial in the Maysville Cemetery.

Another Shooting Affray.

Near the "Half-way-House" just south of Lewisburg, Sunday morning between 9 and 10 o'clock, Bill Tassy shot Joe Price, the ball passing through the scrotum and lodging in the fleshy part of the leg. The wound is not regarded as serious unless blood poisoning should result.

Tassy is about twenty years old. He was jailed by Constable Strode, and will be given a hearing before 'Squire McIlvain at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

Price's wife had assaulted Tassy, it is said, because he refused her some whisky. He knocked her down and was called to account by Price, when the shooting occurred.

Death of Mrs. Cheesman.

Mrs. A. E. Cheesman, widow of the late Jos. Cheesman, died about 7 o'clock Sunday morning at Aberdeen, of uraemic poisoning, the result of some disease of the kidneys. She had been critically ill for several days.

Her husband died a year or so ago. Three children survive, two sons, and one daughter.

The funeral occurs at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the residence, with services by Rev. D. D. Chapin.

Mr. JAMES WISE, of Forest avenue, brought two mammoth tomatoes to the BULLETIN office this morning. The two weigh five and a half pounds, the larger weighing three pounds.

BORN, to Mr. and Mrs. John Hise, of Bellevue, July 30th, a fine son.

Mrs. RICHARD WELSH entertained at her home near Washington in honor of her guest, Miss Mary Carroll.

HOME-GROWN watermelons have appeared in market. The first came from Wilson's Bottom. They are of excellent flavor, but rather small.

THE contract for the fountain to be erected on the Market street esplanade has been let to Mr. J. J. Fitzgerald. The design can be seen in Messrs. McClanahan & Shea's show window.

Does it ever pay to buy any cheap stuff in the jewelry line? You know it doesn't. Ballenger carries no "trashy" jewelry. His stock is the best to be had. Goods warranted.

ANOTHER cocking main occurred early Saturday morning near Manchester between Williams' and Henderson's chickens. There were three fights each for $50, Williams' chickens winning two of them. A small crowd was present.

ATTENTION is called to the advertisement of Mr. S. A. Shanklin elsewhere. For reasons stated, he intends to quit business and is closing out his stock of stoves and tinware at extremely low prices. Take advantage of this opportunity to secure big bargains.

WHEN you see Murphy, the jeweler's stock of "diamonds" and "gold watches," you will be convinced that he carries the "largest" stock. When you learn his prices you will be convinced that his prices are "lower." He never "misrepresents goods." All are "warranted."

"HUFF" GINN got boisterous and began using profane and vulgar language at Electric Park Saturday night, when Manager Fremont called him down. He persisted, however, and finally Mr. Fremont started to eject him from the grounds. Ginn resisted and while they were struggling, Jim Burtle and John Givlin took a hand. Fremont was stabbed in the hip, but the wound is not considered a dangerous one. Burtle and Givlin are each under $500 bond charged with the cutting. Ginn has several charges to answer. They will be tried in Police Court at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The management want it understood that no rowdy or boisterous conduct will be allowed at the Park.

A Growsome Find.

The dead body of a white male child was found on the river shore at the foot of Market street Saturday afternoon by some boys. The object was seen on Friday by Policeman Purnell and others; but they did not notice it closely enough to discover its real character. The head was missing and part of the flesh of the body was gone. Coroner Roe was summoned and it was removed to Porter & Cummings' undertaking rooms, and later in the day buried. There is no clue to the guilty parents. Whether they live in Mayeville, or whether the body was carried here by the water from some point above, will most probably never be known.

RAISING SHEEP.

Every Farm Should Have Some—They Are Profitable in Many Ways.

[Lexington Gazette.]

Take 100 farms in any community and the average number of sheep per farm will not exceed twenty-five. Some farms may have fifty or more sheep, but others will not have over ten or fifteen. Farmers do not keep such flocks because the wool is an important produce, the amount being very small, frequently there not being over two pounds of washed wool per sheep. But sheep are assistants to the farmer. They get at weeds and other undesirable vegetation on the farm in a manner which is not possible for the farmer to perform without expending more labor than is desired, and they convert this material into mutton, the cost of which is nothing, while the sheep really perform a certain service. No matter how prices may be there are some farmers who would not do without sheep, even if they were valueless in the market; but as they can be consumed by the farmer himself there is always a value to sheep. They can graze where the cow cannot approach, and they will eat foods that are useless to the farmer for other purposes. They evenly spread their manure and benefit the land upon which they feed. That they improve the soil more than may be known by some has been shown by the fact that in England it is claimed that 100 sheep huddled on one acre of land for fifteen days will double the crop of grain, and this is verified by the fact that on every English farm no matter how high priced the land may be, will be found a flock of sheep, but the English farmer does not keep sheep for wool.

Is Our Population as Estimated by the Actuary of the Treasury Department.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—The latest official estimate of the population of the United States is 77,000,068.

This is made by the actuary of the Treasury, an officer whose duty it is, at fixed intervals, to report on the per capita circulation of money in the United States. He estimates that the present holdings of money are $22.53 for every man, woman and child in the United States.

His estimate of the population is made by the use of the census reports for the preceding decade. Certain fixed rules of increase by birth and immigration and provision for deaths and other losses are made, and the resulting estimate is accepted as official.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired-out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centers in the stomach, gently stimulates the liver and kidneys and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50c. or $1 per bottle at J. J. Wood's drug store.

Try the WEEKLY BULLETIN. Only $1.50 per year.

AMONG THE MINERS.

But Little Change in the Great Strike Situation.

SEVERAL MASSMEETINGS HELD.

A Number of Miners Quit Work and Others Agree to as Soon as They Are Paid. Strikers Gaining in the Wheeling District—Trouble Feared in Southern Indiana—Reports From Other Places.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 9.—Although yesterday was considered a day of rest among the strikers, probably the most effective work among the Plum Creek miners was performed. A large mass-meeting was held at Camp Isolation at Plum Creek in the afternoon, which, in addition to about 1,000 others, was attended by about 200 women, the wives and daughters of the miners who are still at work in the Plum Creek mine. Notwithstanding the fact that deputies visited the homes of these people yesterday morning and advised them not to attend the meeting, nearly every woman attended, her brother or husband with her.

Because of the many restrictions put on the strikers they have hitherto been unable to get a chance to argue their cause with the Plum Creek workmen, and the occasion given them yesterday was the result of the missionary work of the wives of the strikers from McDonald, Finleyville and Carnegie. These women have been working assiduously during the past week and secured the promise of the wives of the working miners to attend the meeting and bring their husbands. The result of the meeting was the assurance from nearly a hundred men that they would join the strikers.

The plan is for the men to work until they receive their 20-days' pay, which will be given them today, and then they are to desert the pit, leaving only eight days' wages back, which, judging by the action of the company in the case of the Sanky Creek strikers will be refused them. If this plan does not miscarry, the strikers think it will only be a question of a very short time until the Deamit mines are tied up completely.

The meeting yesterday was inaugurated by religious services conducted by Rev. Lincoln Lash, assisted by a choir of 20 colored jubilee singers, after which Mrs. Mary Jones, the Chicago agitator, spoke for about an hour, putting the case very plainly to her women auditors. She placed the responsibility for the success or failure of the strike on the wives and made a decidedly favorable impression.

An epidemic of typhoid fever in a mild form is raging in the vicinity of Camp Determination at Turtle Creek, 60 cases having developed among the citizens of that borough. The campers have not been attacked as yet, and as a precautionary measure, the health officials have ordered extra sanitary measures. Bad water and lack of sewerage in the borough is assigned as the cause of the disease. Five deaths have resulted up to date.

Only 25 strikers were in Camp Determination yesterday, but toward evening it began to assume its normal condition by the return of the men who had gone home to freshen their apparel and otherwise prepare for the new week's work.

IN THE WHEELING DISTRICT.

The Glendale and Elm Grove Men Have Joined the Strikers.

WHEELING, Aug. 9.—The Glendale men have joined the strike and Elm Grove is also out. A demonstration will now be made against Bogg's Run. The leaders have seen the success following the demonstrations in the Pittsburgh district and realize that efforts on every other line have failed to bring out the bone of contention here—the Bogg's Run men. At a meeting of the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly yesterday afternoon resolutions condemning the recent injunctions issued in this state by Judge Jackson and Mason were passed. All efforts to abridge the rights of peaceable assemblage and free speech were denounced.

At Bellaire, a miners' aid store has been established for the aid of the strikers, who are in destitute circumstances. A daily canvass of the town replenishes the stock.

A trades assembly committee is to canvass Wheeling for aid for the local strikers.

The reports in circulation that there would be evictions at some of the company houses across the river are without foundation. It is not likely that such a step will be attempted, as it would result in trouble.

Trouble Feared in Southern Indiana.

VINCENNES, Ind., Aug. 9.—Eighty striking coal miners from Linton have taken possession of an Evansville and Terre Haute freight train bound for Evansville, where they are to be reinforced, then proceed to Earlinton, Ky., and try in a peaceable manner to get the miners at that place to join the strikers. The miners of the state are massing at Evansville, and trouble is feared. All the mines in southern Indiana are closed.

Crisis in Illinois.

MOUNT OLIVE, Ills., Aug. 9.—The interest in the strike situation of the coal miners in this district is now centered in Coffeen. Fully 1,000 strikers are camped there, but so far there has been no outbreak.

Massillon Miners Marching.

NORTH LAWRENCE, O., Aug. 9.—The miners of the Massillon district, about 2,000 in number, are on their way to Wadsworth to induce men at work there to stop.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.
